

6C toolkit is used to monitor the language and communication skill development for a child of 5 years of age. At this stage the child must have 6 basic skills in language and communication. The toolkit is available in attractively designed booklet for easy usage by teachers and parents.

All the 6 basic skills in language and communication for the 5 years age child is provided with easy and interesting games and activities, with clear instruction for parents and teachers to do the monitoring of the child in terms of skill development

The tool gives easy and scoring based monitoring mechanism so that it can be easily interpreted by parents and teachers. The toolkit is also facilitating to engage the child in a particular activity if the skill development is found to be inadequate.

